

Frustration Sets In Nancy Harry

Frustration sets in, when I hear others blaming God for something, or for thinking He was punishing them. The old and new testaments or covenants are different. Today we live by the New Covenant, see Hebrews 8 and 9. But hearing so many people feeling this way, I started to doubt myself and decided I better hear from God for myself.

I said to Him in prayer, “Jesus had the sins of world placed upon Him, absorbing your anger against sin. But what if they haven’t repented and accepted Christ’s payment for their sins? What about the sins of nations, cities and people today? What is your policy today? Are you responsible for disasters and wars to punish nations today? Do people still fall under your heavy hand?”

Here is His answer:

“This is an answer for you to understand. I look down upon the earth and see calamity and heartache. I see my little ones in dire straits. My focus is on my Son’s return, that all may know my love, that all may know my ways. See and know my ways. This earth and those in it bring enough evil and heartache on themselves. I stand and watch and shake my head at the antics of my creation. When will they seek me and know my ways?

Today, hear my voice and listen, for today my work is complete. My son has paid all debts. And so, the curse has been lifted, the punishments have been halted. In my Son’s name blessings abound on both the good and the bad. I do not demand retribution as in days of old. There is a new disposition and a new dispensation. My heart’s desire is to be remembered by my people. So please me, by remembering me and being thankful for my blessings.

Sin has consequences. Goodness has rewards. And remember time and chance do happen, as my son Solomon wrote. I have set in place principles and laws. Living within those bounds or out of those bounds cause natural reactions, some for good and some for bad. That’s why it’s important to learn my ways and apply them in your life.

In times past, I kept a heavy hand upon the nations, especially upon my people. They were to be an example of my blessings to the rest of the world. But they were more interested in serving themselves, then in serving me.

Today, I call out the ones that will serve me and love me. You are a nation among all nations: an example of my love and my goodness among the darkness and evil that prevails. When my Son brings the fullness of my kingdom upon the earth, He will also come prepared for war. Then the nations will receive their just due. Now is a time of waiting and preparation for this time to come.”

Pastor Jerry Lubrano at Destiny Church in Sun City Center, FL, emphasized that all the bad things that happen, from weather, to sickness, to bad circumstances, are not God’s fault. As he said, “Don’t blame God.” And I agree.

“Every good and perfect gift is from above, coming down from the Father of the heavenly lights, who does not change like shifting shadows.” James 1:17

“For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him shall not perish but have eternal life. For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but to save the world through him.” John 3:16-17

“The thief comes only to steal and kill and destroy; I [Jesus] have come that they may have life, and have it to the full.” John 10:10
